

How to organise a sponsored skydive with Click and Jump using Bmycharity

Bmycharity is an easy and effective way to raise money for your chosen charity. Most people have internet access so when using an online service fundraisers find they raise more money for their charity in a more convenient way than traditional methods. The charity benefits from online fundraising as the amount of information they receive about donations allows them to claim more Gift Aid. Gift Aid is a scheme where the government matches 28% of any UK taxpayer's charity donations.

There are 3 ways to pay for your sponsored skydive:

- 1 - Pay for the skydive yourself in full
- 2 - Pay the reservation fee and use some of the donations to pay for the balance
- 3 - Use some of the donations to pay for the whole cost of the skydive

If you are paying for the skydive in full then there is no minimum amount to raise for your chosen charity. You can book the jump at any time and use it to promote your fundraising. You will be sent a jump voucher when you book your jump.

If you are using any of the donations to pay towards your skydive then there is a minimum amount that you need to raise before you jump, in most cases this is £500 - Gift Aid not included. The minimum amount is to ensure that the charity receives the majority of the funds that have been raised.

To pay for the skydive completely from donations you must raise the minimum amount online via your Bmycharity account. Once you have reached your target contact us to make your reservation and you will be sent a jump voucher.

If you would like to book your skydive before you have raised the minimum amount online, you can pay the reservation fee yourself to secure a date. It is then your responsibility to raise the minimum amount online for your charity and let us know, we will then send you a jump voucher. If you do not have the minimum amount online in your account you will not be able to jump.

If you are using any donations to pay for skydive costs, then the only figure on your Bmycharity account that counts toward the minimum fundraise is the "Total Raised Online" - not any of the others. If you have collected sponsorship yourself offline we recommend that you pay it into your Bmycharity account so that it counts toward the online total.

Once you confirm to us that you have jumped we will pass your donations (minus any jump costs) and the Gift Aid information direct to your charity. These payments are made monthly, starting at the end of the month after you have jumped. Further donations made after your jump will be passed on to the charity monthly.

Using an online service involves some costs. Every time a card payment is made the banks charge for processing it. Some of the online fundraising websites also charge an administration fee, up to 5% in some cases. However, we are proud to say that our partners - Bmycharity - were one of the first to abolish their fee. The card processing fee is all that remains and as of November 2010 is just under 2%. We do not charge an administration fee when you use Bmycharity to fundraise for your jump, however if you use www.bmycharity.com/clickandjump but do not book your jump through us there will be an admin fee of £50.

If your charity is not listed when you create your Bmycharity account please contact us and we will add it.

The payment options detailed above only apply to accounts set up through www.bmycharity.com/clickandjump and do not apply to any of the other online fundraising services. We cannot take payment for a skydive from any other service.

If your account has had donations made to it, is inactive for 6 months or more and you have not been in contact with us then we will forward the donations onto the charity you selected.
